Description

This is a larger task than most. On the website so far (ignore the SSL certificate error and click to proceed):
https://guyd.me/en/locations/show/construct0

On the platform, there will be the ability to buy an avatar. So a user can buy and own multiple avatars. Also, the user can equip an avatar, meaning that avatar is what they see in their own thumbnail, and can put inside the map.

This task is for Desktop (not mobile) panels for:

- selecting an avatar to buy. This is like a shop.
- buying it
- listing your bought avatars
- selecting which of the bought avatars to equip

The "me" actions, including this one, would be accessible from the bottom collapsible panel.

The deliverable is png panels but also, a Figma project. Only Figma is accepted as the tool for creating this mockup.
